CANCELLATION AND REFUNDS

A student may cancel his/her enrolment in a programme or withdraw after the commencement of his/her studies, due to health and family reasons, or changes in personal circumstances.

For any student who has paid to attend a course of three months or more, the School ensures the student's fees are paid into a trust, to be available for refund if he/she withdraws within the first eight days.

If the student withdraws within the first eight days, the full amount is paid to the student less an amount equal to the lower of the following amounts: 10 per cent of any amount paid; or $500.

Students who withdraw before the course commences will be entitled to a refund less any amounts allowed to be retained by the School as noted above.

Refund is paid directly to the student or his/her funding agency such as StudyLink. Fees are not transferable to other institutions or students.

After 8 days (for domestic students) and 10 working days (for international Students) of the course commencement, the School will not refund the tuition fee, nor the enrolment fee, homestay placement fee, airport pickup fee and travel/medical insurance. Specifically, no refunds will be made where:

- The student is withdrawn from the course because of misbehaviour, poor attendance or a breach of general rules and regulations as detailed in the student handbook
- The student leaves before he/she completes the course at the School
- (for international students) The student returns home for any reason other than his/her serious illness as certified by a qualified medical practitioner.

All applications for refund must be made in writing, and, in the case of voluntary withdrawal, by completing a withdrawal application form. Decisions on refund after 8 days of the course commencement are at the discretion of the Academic Committee. No refund will be made if the student provides the School with false or misleading information or documents.
